ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO ARTICLES IN THE RECORD

WRIGHT

17(1886):54; 20(1889):38 ("Records of the First and Second Presbyterian Churches").

In the baptisms for 1784 is a Wright entry, which is correct:

> WRIGHT. Dec. 19th. David, Son of Jotham Wright and Elizth Duzenbury his wife, born Decr 14th, 1779.

The published transcript then moves on to a Sherwood baptism. The original,[1] however, contains an additional line, which helps make sense of David's belated entry as a baptism accompanying that of a newborn sibling:

> [Dec.] 19th. John, their son, born Nov. 8th, 1784.

Another Wright entry reports that the father of Sarah, baptized 4 March 1787, was Jonathan, whereas the original is clearly Jotham.

Richard C. Randt, 9146 Winding Way, Ellicott City, MD 21043-6446

[Editor's note: The baptisms were published in the early decades of the RECORD from transcripts the NYG&B Society commissioned at a time when the church records were not readily available. The Genealogical Society of Utah filmed the church records in 1977, and that film is now available, so entries can be readily verified. If you find an error, it is appropriate to report the correction to the RECORD.]

MEACHAM

66(1935):42 ("The Meacham Family of Early Colonial Times," by James W. Greene).

The article makes the unlikely claims that Elijah^5 Meacham (Ichabod^4, Ichabod^3, Isaac^2, Jeremiah^1), born 26 March 1762 "at Nova Scocia" was probably the man of Enfield who enlisted 13 January 1778 in "Harmon Co., Conn.," served under Washington and Lafayette until 31 December 1781, and was the pensioner living in Virginia in 1818. Based on "the voluminous mass of Meacham data left by Mrs. Ida Meacham Strobridge," it gives him wives Sarah Cook and Frances Miles, says he died 3 November 1837 near Christianburg, Virginia, and gives him seven children born in Chester, Connecticut, between 1827 and 1838 [making him 65 at birth of first child, all children born while he was residing in Virginia; last child born exactly eight months after his death].

According to Elijah Meacham's Revolutionary War pension,[2] the pensioner enlisted 1 January 1778 at Suffield, Hartford County, Connecticut,

He was age 65 when he applied on 3 October 1820 [i.e., born about 1764/65], applying under the Act of 1818; had a son Elijah, diseased, age 18 or 19 in 1820; married Frances Miles 9 March 1837 in Virginia; and died 26 October 1851 in Montgomery County. The application does not mention earlier marriages or other children.

In recent years, a Bible record has been posted on the Internet.[3] The Bible, printed in 1824 and apparently in Elijah's handwriting, contains Meacham and Miles entries, giving birth dates for Elijah, for an earlier wife Sarah (who died a month before his marriage to Frances), and for children born between 1785 and 1807.

> Elijah D Meacham was born March 20th 1757
> Sarah Meacham was born August the 1st 1759
> Ziba Meacham was born December the 19th 1785
> Simeon Meacham was born September the 7th 1791
> Jeddah Meacham was born August the 3rd 1794
> Mary Meacham was born July the 20th 1798
> William and James was born January the 17th 1801
> Elijah and Seth was born August the 24th 1804
> Thadeaus Meacham was born December the 15th 1807
> Sarah Meacham wife of Elijah D Meacham dearparted this life febary the 5 1837

Clearly, more study is needed to place the Virginia pensioner correctly in the Connecticut family.[4]

BROUWER

67(1936):110 ("Brouwer [Brower-Brewer] Family Notes," by John Reynolds Totten).

The author says that Jan Gerritszen Brouwer, his wife Annetje Laurens, and their daughter Lucretje "may have died shortly after June 19, 1656, or they may have removed elsewhere from New Amsterdam leaving no trace of their intended destination or again they may have returned to the old country whence they came." As shown on page 250 in this issue, the third option is correct; they had a son baptized in Amsterdam in 1666.

VAN TUYL

122:(1991):89 ("Van Tuyl Ancestry in the Netherlands").

In this article Neeltje^2, daughter of Jan Otten^1 Van Tuyl and Geertruijt Jansdr van Lent, is said to have married 3 October 1686 "[her stepbrother] Aert Tunissen van Pelt [son of Tunis Janszen Lanen van Pelt by his first wife; his second wife was Geertruijt Jansdr. van Lent, widow of Jan Otten van Tuyl]." This is somewhat misleading. Aert and Neeltje were not related at marriage. A decade later, on betrothal registered 6 August 1696, Neeltje's mother married Aert's father.[5] Thus, Aert's mother-in-law became his stepmother, Neeltje's father-in-law became her stepfather, and husband and wife became stepsiblings.

137(2006):298 ("Indentures of the Poor Children of Orange County, 1829–1847, 1871, 1884, 1885," by Roger D. Joslyn).

The abstract reported the indenture in 1832 of Isaac J. Pepper to John A. Runno "to learn the trade of potty baker [sic]." The [sic] was undeserved. Pottebacker is a perfectly legitimate word–in Dutch–meaning potter, an interesting example of the endurance of elements of Dutch culture in New York.

PIFFARD

137(2006):272–73 ("The Paternal Ancestry of David^1 Piffard of Piffard, Livingston County, and Sarah^1 (Piffard) Ray of Monroe County," by Peter Ray).

James Guerard Piffard is found in English censuses as both James (1851[6]) and George (1841, when the widower and son of his sister Ann were living with him[7]). Under the entry for Ann Piffard, correct the birth of her husband, Rev. George Lawrence, to "about 1791."

138(2007):87 ("Pierre^1 Parmentier of New Amsterdam and His Dutchess County Descendants," by Bruce A. Bennett).

Evidence that Pierre Marmande was not Pierre Parmentier, but was in fact Pierre Montross dit Marmande, was presented in James L. Hansen, "The Origins of the Montross and David Families of Tarrytown," which presents details concerning the origins, life, and family of Pierre Montross dit Marmande.[8]

In the early 1930s, James W. Greene of New York City, NY began his contribution of many articles published in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record pertaining to the Meacham family of NY, Mass. and Connecticut. His many articles over the years detailed the family and he has many mistakes published in the those quarterlies. I have all of the original quarterlies. He gives the following lineages:

Ichabod Meacham (Isaac2, Jeremiah1)
born / Salem, MA / 11 Aug 1679
died / 1766
married / Elizabeth (maiden name not given)

his son
Ichabod Meacham (Ichabod3, Isaac2, Jeremiah1)
born / 20 Feb 1725 / Enfield, CT died / no date married / Hannah (maiden name not given)

his son
Elijah Meacham (Ichabod4, Ichabod3, Isaac2, Jeremiah1)
born / 26 Mar 1762 / Nova Scocia died / 3 Nov 1837 / near Christiansburg, VA married / # 1 Sarah Cook married / # 2 Francis Miles

Abraham, b 28 Nov, 1833
Solomon, b 18 Jan 1836

The above information pertaining to the children of Elijah is in great error. On the 10 Nov 2006, I contacted the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record and told them of this published error and sent correct information. In 2007, in their Volume # 138, they published the following:

MEACHAM
66(1935):43 ("THE MEACHAM FAMILY OF EARLY COLONIAL TIMES," BY JAMES W.

GREENE).
The article makes the unlikely claims that Elijah5 Meacham (Ichabod4, Ichabod3, Isaac2, Jeremiah1), born 26 March 1762 "at Nova Scocia" was probably the man of Enfield who enlisted 13 January 1778 in "Harmon Co., Conn." served under Washington and Lafayette until 31 December 1781, and wa the pensioner living in Virginia 1818. Based on "the voluminous mass of Meacham data left by Mrs. Ida Meacham Strobridge," it gives him wives Sarah Cook and Frances Miles, says he died 3 November 1837 near Christianburg, Virginia, and gives him seven children born in Chester, Connecticut, between 1827 and 1838 (making him 65 at birth of first child, all children born while he was residing in Virginia: last child born exactly eight months after his death).
According to Elijah Meacham's Revolutionary War pension, the pensioner enlisted 1 January 1778 at Suffield, Hartford County, Connecticut, under Capt. John Harmon, served until June 1783, being at Monmouth, Springfield, Stoney Point, and Yorktown, but never under Washington or Lafayetts, and was discharged in June 1783. He was age 65 when he applied on 3 October 1820 (i.e. born about 1764/65), applying under the Act of 1818; had a son Elijah, diseased, age 18 or 19 in 1820; married Frances Miles 9 March 1837 in Virginia; and died 26 October 1851 in Montgomery County. The application does not mention earlier marriages or other children.
In recent years, a Bible record has been posted on the Internet. The Bible printed in 1824 and apparently in Elijah's handwriting, contains Meacham and Miles entries, giving birth dates for Elijah, for an earlier wife Sarah (wh died a month before his marriage to Francss), and for children born between 1785 and 1807.
Elijah D. Meacham was born March 20th, 1757
Sarah Meacham was born August the 1st 1759
Ziba Meacham was born December the 19th 1785
Simeon Meacham was born September the 7th 1791
Jeddah Meacham was born August the 3rd 1794
Mary Meacham was born July the 20 1798
William and James was born January the 17 1801
Elijah and Seth was born August 24the 1804
Thadeaus Meacham was born December the 15th 1807
Sarah Meacham wife of Elijah D. Meacham dearparted this life febary the 5 1837

Clearly, more study is needed to place the Virginia pensioner correctly in the Connecticut family.

I was pleased that they published my "correction to articles published over 70 years ago", but have had no contact from anyone pertaining to my corrections........

Mrs. Ida Strowbridge is the person who started the "Elijah married Sarah Cook" item. I have never been able to confirm that Elijah married Sarah "Sally" Cook. Deeds call her Sarah and Sally, but never give her maiden name.

Might mention that the birth location for Elijah as Nova Scocia is really a place in Connecticut. There is a Nova Scotia School and a Nova Soctia Hill (also called Scott's Mountain (from Connecticut Place Names (by) Hughes and Allen, Pub. Ct. Historical Society, c1976.

I, Charles Taylor clerk of Montgomery County do hereby certify, that the foregoing oath (or affirmation) and the schedule thereto annexed, are truly copied from the record of the said court; and I do further certify, that it is the opinion of the said court that the total amount in value of the property exhibited in the aforesaid schedule is forty dollars and —— cents. Clerk of the Court for the County of Montgomery

(a) The whole of the form prescribed in the first section, to verify the amount of property of the applicant, the oath of the party, and the certificate of the clerk excepted, must be done while the court is in session.

(b) All are courts of record, within the contemplation of the act of Congress,

1st. Which are expressly made courts of record by the laws of the state which create them;

2d. Which have been solemnly adjudged, by the tribunals of the several states, to be courts of record;

3d. Which proceed according to the course of the common law, with a jurisdiction unlimited in point of amount, keeping a record of their proceedings.

4th. Which have the power of fine and imprisonment;

And courts which proceed according to the course of the civil and canon law, having neither of those attributes, are not courts of record, although they may keep a registry of their proceedings, and possess a seal. The court should, in every instance, state, on the face of the proceedings, that it is a court of record, and state why it is such.—[Opinion of the Attorney General of the United States.]

(c) Here set forth the regiment, company, and line, or ship, corps, or vessel, and the date of the original declaration; and, if he has received a pension, the number of the pension certificate should be inserted.

(d) Here enumerate each article of real and personal estate, necessary clothing and bedding excepted, and subscribe the same. The declarant must also mention his occupation, his ability to pursue it, the number and names of his family residing with him, their ages, and their capacity to contribute to their support, in order that the department may be enabled to decide whether the applicant is in such indigent circumstances as to be entitled to the pension. It is the opinion of the Attorney General, that the words of the third section of the act of the 1st of May, 1820, "in such indigent circumstances as to be unable to support himself without the assistance of his country," comprehend those only who are incapable of supporting themselves without the aid of the government, except by private or public charity.

Dear Sir.

I have received the Pension warrant of Mrs Fanny Meacham for $96 per annum commencing on the 3rd February 1853. I had supposed that her pension would have commenced on the 26th day of October 1851 the day of his death; I find that Mrs Susanna Charlton of this county who obtained a pension was paid from the time of her husbands death; which took place in 1851, or at least from the time her husband had been paid. Mrs Rogers who received a pension under the act of 29 July 1848 was paid from 4 March 1848; and in fact all the pensions which I have seen granted to widows under the act of 29 July 1848. either run back to Mar 1848, or from the time of the husbands death; It is true that no time is fixed upon in the act of 3rd February 1853 for the pension to commence, it however provides "that the widows of all officers non commissioned officers musicians and privates of the revolutionary army who were married subsequent to 1 Jany 1800, shall be entitled to a pension in the same manner as those who were married before that date". It seems but reasonable that the widows claiming under the act of 3rd Feby 1853 are placed upon the same footing with those of the 29 July 1848. and that their pensions ought to commence from the time of the husbands death unless in cases where the husband died previous to 4th March 1848. and in that case they ought to be paid from the 4 March 1848. Should you concur with me in opinion, please inform me, and I will return the warrant for its correction.

Respectfully

Sir. A few days since I received your letter of the 9th Instant, in relation to the claim of Mrs Frances Meacham to be restored to the pension roll, in which you say "I will allow the claim of Mrs Frances Meacham for restoration to the pension roll, as soon as proof is filed that she is a widow, and did not encourage the rebels nor manifest a sympathy with their cause. It is advisable that you show by what means she was supported during the rebellion".

I was under the impression that all these facts were proven; I think upon a careful reading of the affidavit of John Tracy and Philip Wolverine you will find that it is proven by them that she is a widow; In her declaration she states that she was supported during the war on a small tract of poor unproductive land she also stated that "she did not in any manner encourage the rebels or manifest a sympathy with their cause". The two witnesses above named who are certified to by the clerk to be credible swear that they have every reason to believe from her Allegiance and their acquaintance with her, that she is the identical person she represents herself to be, they also swear that they believe her statements made in her declaration to be correct & true. I have endeavoured to pursue the forms, if I have failed please say whether I must prove these facts by additional witnesses and if the [illegible] is wrong state wherein; also whether affidavits taken before a Magistrate will answer or a Notary public both of whom are authorized by law to administer oaths

Dear Mary,

I was so glad to hear from you. I had just gone through letters from the 1980's and was thinking about you.

I have e-mail at work and have gotten some information. The best, best, best is the following from this lady who is in Francis, Jed's son 's line. Francis is brother of my Elijah D. in WVA. I copied the whole e-mail for you.

>To: Sue.Swain@globalone.net
>From: Bill Chester <chester@powersupply.net>
>Subject: Meacham/Miles family bible
>Sue, it's real, I touched it and read it and it was just wonderful!!!!!!!!!!!!
>The man that has the bible lives on the land that Elijah D. Meacham >purchased for 50 pounds in 1804, still the original 40 acres intact! And >there is a cemetery on the top of the ridge, but I didn't get to see it, just heard >about it. He says that he remembers two stones and one is for a confederate >soldier! I plan to try to go see him again next July and get some of my family to help >me clear the area and see what is left. To get to it you can go up an old logging road or climb up the ridge, I opt for the logging road! Well, now for the information contained in the bible! I have pictures and you can read them pretty clearly and with a magnifying glass it's just like you are >reading it from the bible itself!
>I'm just going to list the Meacham information, not the Miles. I will send you >a copy of the pictures if you would like!
>Here it is:
>Elijah D. Meacham was born March the 20th 1757
>Sarah Meacham was born August the 1st (or 7th) 1759
>Ziba Meacham was born December the 19th 1785
>Simeon Meacham was born September the 7th 1791
>JEDDAH MEACHAM WAS BORN AUGUST THE 3RD 1794
>Mary Meacham was born July the 20th 1798
>William and James was born January the 17th 1801
>Elijah and Seth was born August the 24th 1804
>Thadeaus A. Meacham was born December the 15th 1807
>Sarah Meacham wife of Elijah D. Meacham departed this life February the 5th 1837
>Sarah Jain Meacham departed this life February the 18th 1836
>Mary Meacham departed this life January the 12 1839
>Lisa Meacham departed this life March 9 1840
>Daughters of James R. Meacham of Ohio
>
>There is one section which I think contains more Meacham info. but it was very >hard to read even from the bible itself, but I am going to take it to our main >library which has a very strong lighted magnifying glass and see if I can't >make it out that way!
>All the other info. is on the Miles family, they must have thought pretty >hightly of Elijah D. because one the them named a son Elijah Meacham Miles >that was born June the 14 AD=1867.
>
>The bible is dated 1824, I wonder who wrote the information in??? Could have >been Elijah, don't think it was Sarah because it looks like the same handwriting for her death entry too!

>I still can't believe I now have proof that Jedediah was the son of Elijah!
>I always knew it was right , but now there's proof!
>
>Oh, I also got a couple pictures of James Augustus Mitchem, who was the son >of Isaiah and Louisa Dockery Mitchem, Isaiah was the son of Jedediah and Joanna >and my great great grandfather! I can see a family resemblence!
>Well, gotta go, picked up some overtime at work tomorrow and have to get up at >5am. Look forward to hearing from you, Cheryl

Yes, I am staying on top this. Will let you know if I find out anything. Also I have more on Ichabod from my research at the courthouse in Montgomery Co.

I am at work and in a real hurry, but will answer your other questions soon.

Wanted to do this here so I could copy the e-mail without typing again. Can I e-mail you?

Sue

P.S. Cheryl is real close w/info on Robin Miles. She still hasn't ~~sent~~ sent pictures. Guess I need to E-mail her again.

Love,
Sue

[1] Death of Col. Durkee.—The Colonel, a veteran of the French and Indian War who had served in the Revolution since the Lexington Alarm, had long borne up against what a fellow officer describes as "a slender and debilitated constitution." He went to his home at Norwich, probably on "sick leave," in the winter of '81–'82 and died May 29, '82. Lt.-Col. Grosvenor of his Regt., learning of his decease, wrote to Gen. Huntington, also then at Norwich, as follows:

"Dear General: By your letter to Doct^{r} Ellis we are informed of the death of Col^{o} Durkee. It is a soldier's maxim not to repine at Fate & a Christian virtue to hold ourselves conformable to the Dispensations of Providence.—I am happy to hear that the Col^{o} possessed his mind with its usual Firmness & composure to his final exit:—it highly indicates the Soldier and Man of worth."

Dear Sir

I have received the Pension warrant of Mrs Fanny Meacham for $96 per annum commencing on the 3rd February 1853. I had supposed that her pension would have commenced on the 26th day of October 1851 the day of his death; I find that Mrs Susanna Wharton of this county who obtained a pension was paid from the time of her husbands death: which took place in 1851. or at least from the time her husband had been paid. Mrs Rogers who received a pension under the act of 29 July 1848 was paid from 4 March 1848: and in fact all the pensions which I have seen granted to widows under the act of 29 July 1848. either run back to Mar 1848, or from the time of the husbands death; It is true that no time is fixed upon in the act of 3rd February 1853 for the pension to commence, it however provides "that the widows of all officers non commissioned officers musicians and privates of the revolutionary army who were married subsequent to January 1800.. shall be entitled to a pension in the same manner as those who were married before that date." It seems but reasonable that the widows claiming under the act of 3rd Feby 1853 are placed upon the same footing with those of the 29 July 1848. and that their pensions ought to commence from the time of the husbands death unless in cases where the husband died previous to 4th March 1848. and in that case they ought to be paid from the 4 March 1848. Should you concur with me in opinion, please inform me, and I will return the warrant for its correction

Respectfully
